

Holiday Newsletter 2010

It's Time to Gear up for the Holidays!

Now is the time to be thinking about holiday gifts. With our wonderful selection of artwork and beautifully illustrated children's book, you can find something for everyone on your list.

Featured Painting "Houses of the Lord"

George D. Durrant has been a well beloved father, grandfather, author, and church leader for many years. His less well known talent for water color painting is now available exclusively on prophetpaintings.com for everyone to enjoy in this beautiful depiction of a family and neighborhood looking up at the temple.

"Houses of the Lord" is an odd sized painting. We have it available in 11x14 or 8x10 for easier framing, but there are white bars on the top and bottom. We also offer a 20x113.5 inch print that is an actual size version with no white on the edges. Visit <http://www.prophetpaintings.com> and select Temple Artwork to add this beautiful painting to your collection!

Most Popular Painting

Since its release a few months ago, "Sacrament Meeting" has become a popular best seller. Due to the popularity, the artist has offered the painting in several larger sizes. The sizes available are below. Please keep in mind that some of the larger sizes may need to be special ordered and could take longer to ship.

Place your order today to make one of these prints a gift for your friend or family today!
